DETAILED ACTION

1. An amendment was received from the applicant on April 8, 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. Claims 3-5 recite the limitation "the rear compartment" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 1, 14 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lesniak (US 6,623,322).

Lesniak discloses the same trailerable recreational vessel as claimed, as shown in Figures 1-14, that is comprised of a hull that is further comprised of a pair of pontoons, as shown in Figure 2, that are spaced apart, a bridge, as shown in Figure 2, that connects said pontoons together and forms a deck for passengers that extends from a bow to a stern of said vessel, at least one bulkhead, defined as Part #34, that is disposed at said stern of said vessel and extends from said deck, as shown in Figure 2, and a collapsible main canopy, defined as Part #12, that can be stored in said bow of said vessel and is operable to extend from said bow to said at least one bulkhead at said stern in order to cover said deck from said bow to said stern, as shown in Figure 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lesniak.

Lesniak, as set forth above, discloses all of the features claimed except for the use of a second bulkhead for defining a rear compartment in said vessel.

The use of a plurality of bulkheads in a vessel instead of a single bulkhead would be considered by one of ordinary skill in the art to be an obvious multiplication of parts for the purpose of providing separated compartments within said vessel.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention, to utilize a second bulkhead in combination with the vessel as disclosed by Lesniak for the purpose of providing a vessel with separated compartments within said vessel.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claim 22 is allowed.
10. Claims 6-13 and 16-21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

11. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-5, 14 and 15 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

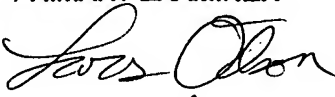

Conclusion

12. Any inquiry concerning this communication from the examiner should be directed to Exr. Lars Olson whose telephone number is (571) 272-6685.
